“ Eulogy on behalf of my father - Charles “Dan” Tarbutton
Oct 23, 1922 – June 13, 2019

I am humbled by the opportunity to share a few thoughts and memories about my Dad - but please bear with me.

And now, as I stand here today, I realize how fortunate and blessed I am to have Dad as my Father. There are not words to express his influence in my life. It is through his example that I strive to be a better person and enjoy the many blessings in my life today.

Dad was a hardworking, strong, loving, gentleman, and a gentle man. He loved his family. Although my Dad may never have said it out loud, I know that he was truly proud of my sisters and me and the way we all have grown up with wonderful families of our own. When we were younger, it was not always easy for Dad at home, but, Yes, he loved us - very much. By example, he instilled in us a core value system that defined who HE was and what we became. And that, was a man who kept promises and honored commitment. Dad was a man of integrity – a God-loving man.

I would like to share a few more reasons why I admire my Dad. First and foremost was his love and commitment for Faye - and not just marital commitment. He was committed to making her happy. If it was important to her, it became important to him. They were happily blessed and married for 32 years, and during his last days, his only concern was for Faye’s well-being, and not his own impending mortality.

Some of my favorite memories of my Dad, Faye, my sisters and families are the times when we would get together at our home in the Bosque countryside. Dad was always eager for Frank to get the Kawasaki out and load everybody up for a ride down to the creek, along with our dogs and neighbor dogs following alongside us. Dad always had his camera, and even though we may not be ready, he was taking photos of everything and everybody – I truly believe these were some of the most peaceful and happiest times we spent time together – such fun, loving memories – I’ll cherish them forever.

Dad showed faith, strength, and love right up until his last minutes with us. I am keenly aware that he touched all our lives in one way or another. Dad didn't tell us how to live; he lived, and we were blessed to watch him do it.

And now, may God's love and grace comfort all who loved Dad so much - God bless you, Dad, and may you rest in peace, Gentle Man.

Thank you ever so much for this opportunity to share a few special memories and thoughts about my precious Dad.
Blessings, Billie Hulke
