

Rose Cecelia Krieger Cleaveland

August 23, 1915 - June 26, 2020

Rose Cecelia Krieger Cleaveland passed away June 26, 2020 in Tyler. She was born August 23, 1915 in Portland OR.

Rose and George were married on November 3, 1933 in Idaho Falls, ID. They worked on a cattle ranch in Montana until 1935 when the whole Cleaveland family moved to Seattle, WA. During World War II, Rose was a Lieutenant Air Raid Warden, Women's Auxiliary, in Seattle. Rose was a long-time member of West Seattle Christian Church where she served as a Deaconess, was in the Women's Missionary Group and taught VBS when Alice was little. She and George also served at Normandy Christian Church in Normandy Park (a suburb of Seattle) for many years.

In April of 2000, Rose, along with Alice and Ray moved to Whitehouse, Texas. They visited First Baptist Church of Whitehouse, and never left. Rose loved the Widow/Deacon Banquets and made many friends in her 20 years there.

The highlights of Rose's life were her relationship with Jesus Christ and her family – ALL of them. But a special place in her heart for her grandson Andrew, and her two great-granddaughters, Olivia and Clara.

In hope of that immortal crown,
I now the cross sustain,
And gladly wander up and down,
And smile at toil and pain.
I suffer out my three score years
Till my deliverer come,
And wipe away His servant's tears,
And take His exile home.
Charles Wesley

“ The sweet lady I call Mrs C. I used to think of as my second mom. Alice and I have been good friends since high school, and I just could not call her by her first name and Mrs Cleveland was just too formal. She welcomed me to all the family get together's and there was never a time I did not feel welcomed in her home, and there was always a plate of cookies too. Mrs. C was a wonderful Proverbs 31 woman, she loved The Lord with all her heart and I loved her.
