

Adam Shackelford

November 17, 1978 - April 26, 2006

Services for Adam Shackelford, 27, Tyler, are scheduled for 2:00 pm, Saturday, April 29, 2006, at Marvin United Methodist Church with Dr. Michael Dent officiating. Burial will be in Bascom Cemetery under direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home. Adam passed away Wednesday, April 26, 2006 in Tyler. Adam was born on Nov. 17, 1978 in Tyler. He was raised in the Tyler area having graduated from Chapel Hill High School and Tyler Junior College. He later attended the Art Institute of Dallas. Adam loved to travel and lived in Hawaii and Dallas. He was a photographer, enjoyed collecting fossil rocks and sticks, loved music, movies, cartoons, video games, and people. He was a member of Las Mascras Drama Fraternity. Adam's kind and gentle soul touched all those who came in contact with him. His gift for never meeting a stranger, his wisdom and his complete honesty won him an abundance of friends. He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Lena Shackelford, Lt. Col. Oren Atchley and Linnie Atchley. Adam is survived by his loving family including his parents, Glenn and Jacque Shackelford of Whitehouse; brother, Chris Shackelford of Tyler; sister, Robin Shackelford Utay and husband Hoyt of Allen; nephew, Reid Utay; grandfather, Glenn Shackelford of Grand Prairie; and his beloved aunts, uncles, cousins, and a multitude of close and much loved friends. Pallbearers will be Matt Cates, Matt McGinnis, Crin (Nugget) Calif, Wayne Davis, Audra Oakley, and Derrick Thompson. The family will receive friends from 6-8:00 pm Friday at Stewart Family Funeral Home, 7525 Old Jacksonville Hwy., south Tyler 75703. Memorials may be made to the Epilepsy Research Foundation, P. O. Box 3004, London, W44XT (www.erf.org.uk).

Tribute Wall

“ I can't believe we are sneaking up on 20 years... I miss you still and think of you often. I was hanging out with our friends the other day chatting about you. It was great but I still would have preferred to talk about you to your face. Xoxo

Jezzy Vee - August 06, 2024 at 12:06 PM

AH

“ I want to tell you how very sorry I am for your loss. I know how close your family is and what a heartbreak this must be. I will keep you all in my thoughts and prayers!

Love, Amy Holesko

Amy Holesko - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

DH

“ Adam's beautiful smile will live on in the hearts of all who knew him. You were never a stranger to Adam.

Deanna Hammonds - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

RE

“ I only knew Adam briefly, but from what I knew he was a sweet, sweet man. He will be missed by many. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family in this hard time.

Regina - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

PA

“ Adam was one of the finest young men I've known. My deepest sympathies for his family and my deepest respect for his memory.

Prasanth Akundi - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

SM

“ To the Shacklford Family,

I am very sorry for your loss. I wish that this were not the reason that I were getting back in touch with you. When I was a student at TJC we heard stories about Adam and watched him grow up. Every time that Jackie would mention his name you could see the love in her eyes that she had for her son. She spoke well of him at all times and for the little time that we were around Adam we enjoyed him as well.

I know that this is going to be a hard time for all of you, however, the only thing that I think I could say to make this better is don't mourn Adam, celebrate him. Think of all the good times and the laughter and then you will cherish him forever. Try and remember the funny things that he did to make you laugh and that will help get you through this hard time.

Even though I have not been at TJC in fifteen years, I have never forgotten the people who were special to me. I can tell you the Shackelford family was one of those special things. I wish I were able to attend the services, however, I am out of town for a work related matter and not able to be there. Just remember you have my sympathy, but more than that you have my love and my respects.

Love,
Shawn K. McBrayer
TJC Theatre Student 1990-1992

Shawn McBrayer - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

SG

“ I am so incredibly sorry to hear about the loss of Adam. I know this is heart breaking to you all. You all stay in my thoughts and prayers.

Sally Payne Grantham - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

EM

“ Dear Glenn, Jacque, Robin and Chris,

Eddie and I will be out of town this weekend, but our love, thoughts, and prayers are with you all. God has provision to see you through this, and He and He alone truly knows your sorrow.

*We love you,
Eddie and Carol*

Eddie and Carol Maddox - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ I recently lost my brother. When I heard about Adam, I felt the same loss.

This event brought me yet again to consider the power over all. We were taught that it was merciful. We were told that it would not allow suffering. We believed that we would not be forsaken.

An example of this mercy is what I have seen in the death of Adam. This beautiful boy grew into a man without the darkness I have seen in so many right in front of my eyes.

I don't know why he had to suffer as long as he did; but I'm glad that he was finally allowed to be free. From the love he showed me in a moment, I was convinced he deserved that freedom. However; we never want to see the end of something so gloriously refreshing.

I want to thank those involved in bring up Adam.

He never failed to mention how wonderful his mother was, and though I never got to meet her, you could see the light in his eyes meant truth. I was overwhelmed with the desire to know just who she was. [and still is]

When he told me about his father, his words painted a picture of how he "helped" build thier family home at the age of three.

I don't think I can ever really truley express how Adam helped me. How he touched so many lives.

I'm glad I got to be one of those people.

Corena Harton - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

SM

“ *Jacque,
I am very sorry that you are experiencing this great loss. You are such a loving, kind person and a wonderful Mom. Adam was very blessed.
My son speaks so highly of you and we feel that you have been a great influence in his life. Thank you for all you have done and will continue to do.
My God bless you and your family during this time and always.*
Sylvia McBrayer

Sylvia McBrayer - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

KM

“ My prayers go out to his family, who he spoke of so lovingly. He always knew how to make me smile. I miss him in presence, but keep him in memory.

Kara Mitchell - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

VP

“ *Jacque,
I am so sorry for what you and your family are going through right now. My father passed this past June, and I remember that very few things made any sense to me. I just pray that you and your family will find comfort during this time. I realized that when we don't understand why things happen the way they do, God has to be in control. Know that many prayers are being sent for you and your loved ones.
Take care,
v*

Veta Patrick - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

JP

“ Sending my thoughts, prayers and love to each of you. Wish I could be there for support. With my deepest sympathy,
Jan Pairsh

Jan Pairsh - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

CB

“ When someone asked me about Adam on Wednesday, my immediate response was, "he was like my little brother." In thinking about our TJC Theatre family, I realized he was like everybody's little brother. Some of you changed his diapers, some of you fed him his first Doritos. When I met him, he was in high school, but I could sense that he was wise beyond his years. (Wisdom I think is a quality he must have genetically inherited.)

We spent time just hanging out. We went to the movies together. Being raised in the theatre, you can imagine that one develops a certain culture and taste for movies. We saw Mars Attacks, and Muppet Treasure Island. Adam never denied his inner child, and being friends with him, I learned that things we thought were funny as children are still funny when we are grown up. I could always count on Adam for a laugh. Make that hysterical laughter.

I know he made us all smile and laugh, because Adam had more love in his heart than anyone, and he tended to share it with everyone around him. He couldn't help it.

For the students who went through the TJC Theatre program (or even those who just roamed the halls) we were profoundly blessed to get 2 teachers for the price of 1. For outside the classroom, for 27 years, our brother Adam taught us how to love, how to laugh, and how to always keep the joy and wonder of childhood in our hearts.

I will always remember you with the fondest love and affection.

*Your friend,
Cindy*

Cindy Ball - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

AB

“ Dear Shackelford Family,
We would like to send you our thoughts and prayers at this time.
Adam was such a remarkable young man. Just yesterday at the school we were remembering how he never had any complaints or negative comments about anything.
Anytime I was carrying on about a problem he would just walk by and make an "Adam" comment and immediately make me smile.
We are truly blessed and are better people because we knew him.

Andrew, Leigh Ann & Courtney Bugg - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

BD

“ Blair & I are so very sorry for your loss. Please know we are praying for you.

Blair & Lynn Dugger - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

JB

“ You are all in my prayers as you go through this difficult time. Please know that I am here for you Robin in whatever way I can help.

Justin Boland - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

CJ

“ "the pain now, is part of the happiness then....."

i wrap my love around you, dear sweet Shackelfords.

*and i don't know much, but i do know that for Adam...real life.....
has just begun.....*

i am honored to have smiled with him.

Christa Kimlicko Jones - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

KP

“ *To all family:
I am very sorry for your loss and I hope God will bless you all in this time of grief. Your entire family has meant so much to all of us over the years. Please let the Lord blanket you with love during this difficult time.
With love,
Kelley S. Pitzer*

Kelley S. Pitzer - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

WS

“ *I initially met Jacque and Adam when they were still physically "one" and I was a new student at TJC. Most of my memories of Adam are from his baby and toddler days. What joy it was to have such a sweet addition to our theater family! Adam was a first baby for many of us. Often seen trailing behind one of his favorite student friends but most often behind his mommy. As actors we are taught to observe relationships and I noted that Jacque treated her children Robin, Chris and toddler Adam as friends. Friends she truly enjoyed being with and hanging out with. She was delighted with everything they did! It was a loving example for me as a young adult. My son Gabriel and I visit Tyler each summer and a few years ago we met a very grown up Adam. Sweet, handsome and funny--Gabriel's observation "that cool guy with long hair."
So many of us have been touched by the Shackelford family, what a collective blessing!
Love heals. When we hurt so deeply for each other and ourselves, remember Love heals.*

Wendy Trop Strauss - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

ST

“ Your son was the most wonderful man I have ever known. He had the heart of a god and the smile that nobody will ever forget. I send you prayers and love thru this hard time. Adam will be soarly missed and will Always be in our hearts.
Thank you for allowing us the time we had with your son. He is a gift from god.

Stacy - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

RH

“ I pray that the whole family will be able to feel the love from around the country coming to them ~ that the comfort and peace of God will pour over them. I think of you all constantly and I am feeling this with you.

Robyn Hart - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

SD

“ Adam was one of the most unique, special and fantastically interesting people I've ever known. I love him dearly as well as his family. God bless you all and I honestly thank God for the opportunity to have known Adam and to be able to call him my friend!

Stacie Drinning-Britt - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

TW

“ What a great guy.
I could write a whole book on that crazy fella. He will always be with us.

Troy Williams - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

TB

“ I first met Adam in the 8th grade. That was 1993. We first met, and at first things were cordial. As the years in high school went by we became not friends but irritants for each other. We did not get along or even like each other. All of these things came to a head one day while in high school. Long story short, things ended with him screaming at me, and me laughing at him. I hated myself for it, but at the time we weren't friends and he was just some kid that for some reason enjoyed pissing me off. The day ended with our parents being called and he took a 3-day suspension, and I took 3 Swats from the principle. This was a day I would learn to loathe with all my being. I never forgave myself for that day, and I never will. Amazingly enough ADAM did. He never spoke of that day, he never told his mom it was me, (which since she was a director for the department I wanted desperately to be a part of, that would have been really bad for me), he never held a grudge. I asked him about it one day, and all he said was, "That was between you and me, what good would it do me to hurt you. Besides I love you now." That was Adam. Adam loved everybody, he cared for everybody, and was the absolute most forgiving and friendship ready person I have ever known. I hate that I never got it while I was in high school. In 1998 we became friends. Adam wasn't annoying, Adam loved to play, he loved to mess with people's heads, and he really did a number on me. I love Adam, and I always will. We became fast, quick, and committed friends in college, and I can't believe I lost so much time with him in my life. I'll miss him more than I'll ever be able to explain, or express. I know Adam is in heaven, and kind of laughing to himself, over all this attention coming his way, and wondering what the big deal is. That was just Adam. I hope somehow he can read these messages, so he can know how much he meant to me, and everyone else he met. I've never known anyone as unique, or as interesting as him. I'll always remember Adam dressed as a pirate and calling me and Stacie as he walked home in a bad part of Dallas. He called because we just crossed his mind, and he couldn't think of a better time to say HI. He wasn't even worried that his skinny, little butt might get jumped because he was dressed as a pirate. He thought it was the funniest thing in the world. Again that was just Adam. We love you buddy. Your the best.

Timothy Britt - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

MW

“ I will always remember Adam in my heart and in my prayers. He was a good friend and fun to be around. He always had interesting ideas!

Marissa Wiseman - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

CM

“ I really wish I would have seen you recently. I haven't seen you in a few years and I'm really going to miss you. Love you and miss you so much, Adam.
Courtlynn

Courtlynn Moore - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

CM

“ I am very sorry for your loss. Adam was one of the most kind guys I've ever met. He was never in a bad mood when I saw him, and could give the best hugs ever given. Everytime I saw him if I was in a down mood he always knew what to do, and all it was was to give me one of his hugs. I will miss him very much even though I haven't seen him in a long time.
Courtlynn

Courtlynn Moore - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

JW

“ I will always remember Adam for his dry, quick and witty sense of humor. I'll never forget that baby faced freshman that I met in high school English 11 years ago. My how time did fly and was cut way too short!

Julie Perkins Westerman - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

MC

“ I just wanted to wish my deepest sympathy and am very sorry for your loss. Adam, was a really special person to me. Despite the loss of contact with him since our years at TJC, I thought about him often and have very fond memories.
Please know that I am thinking and praying for you all during this time in your life.

Misty Craft - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

DS

“ I wish more than anything that I was able to be there....Adam was a good friend. To many many people...Myself included.
His untimely passing is made all the more tragic to me, because the last time he and I spoke, we had a pretty big disagreement... but i know that he never stayed angry for long...he couldnt...his heart was too big.

*My heart goes out to all who knew him,
and my thoughts and prayers are with his family.*

Tonight, I pray that God will welcome Adam into His kingdom with open arms...

David Shehane - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

AJ

“ I am going to miss him. He is/was a very special person. I keep expecting someone to call me and tell me it's one big joke. I remember when I met him, at the club he sat down next to me and shook my hand and introduced himself and told me that I would never remember him. I told him that I would. He had those crazy contacts in his eyes and his smile captivated me. From that moment on I never forgot that smile. Later on, I went to go and visit a friend that was living with him he said that he was living with his friend Adam. So, I went over and I saw him and I said, "YOU! I remember you even though you said I never would."

I remember practicing so hard in Soul Caliber 2, trying to learn Ivy's special move, just so that I could beat him once. It never happened, but I tried.

Adam, you were truly a strong person. You never let it show that things were bothering you, even though they were. I pray that you have found peace wherever you are. I love you.

Annette Johnson - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

DM

“ So sorry to hear of your loss. You and your family will be in my prayers. May God bless you and may you feel His healing hands all around you.

Daniel "Batt" Millwee - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

JM

“ Mrs. Shackelford,
I am very sorry for this tremendous loss. You and your family are in my prayers. I pray God will give you strength to get through this tough time.

Jennifer Marshall - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

KB

“ I don't know how to express the weight of this loss. Adam was always my smile, my hug, my partner in "silly" from 1984 until now. I won't be sad for Adam because he is in a glorious place. I will grieve for all of us that will be here without the smile, the hug, the "silly". I'll miss you little brother. Love and prayers to Jacque', Glenn, Robin & Chris. Jacque' you are the heart mother to us all. We love you!

Kim

Kim Blumn - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

MA

“ I always remember all of the Shackelford children as part of my TJC family in the Theatre department. Adam running in and out of costume fittings and rehearsals. The cherubic face that was always so endearing. The TJC Theatre kids felt as if we were adopted aunts and uncles or big brothers and sisters to the little Adam.

When seeing him again in the last few years, I was always amazed that he had that same innocence; so trusting and open. He seemed ready to embrace the world.

Jacque shared a humorous story about him hugging a woman that he didn't know while in church in Hawaii and the shocked reaction from the congregation. I only thought that was so Adam.

I send my love and prayers to you. Adam was special and a loved member of your extended TJC family.

Mitch Andrews - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

E(

“ Adam lived with grace and laughter in his heart and his smile brought joy to all our hearts. He will be mourned and the heavens will rejoice for they are truly receiving an angel into their midst.

Elizabeth (Import) - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

LB

“ My deepest sympathy to Jacque and her family.

Laura Bozeman - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

SD

“ Quotes - - -

"We shape clay into pots But it is the emptiness incisde That holds whatever we want." Tao Te Ching

"God permits industrious angels Afternoons to play." Emily Dickinson

*"Fame is my name. I dwell among the clouds,
Being immortal, and the wreath I bring Itself is immortality." e. e. cummings*

*"Go - not knowing where.
Bring - not knowing what.
The path is long, the way unknown." Russian Fairytale*

*". . . but you can love completely without complete understanding."
Norman Maclean*

"People say that what we're all seeking is a menaing for life. . . . I think that what we're really seeking is an experience of being alive, so that our life experiences on the purley physical plane will have resonance within out innermost being and reality, so that we can actually feel the rapture of being alive." Joseph Campbell

Scott Dulaney - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

JW

“ I am so sorry to hear about your terrible loss. Keep faith that all your memories will comfort you through the years. You have my deepest sympathy.

Janet

Janet Mattingly West - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

AE

“ I'm glad I got to see Adam at Christmas. I wish I could've been there for you Jacque. I love you very much.

Allison Epperson - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

KM

“ Adam had the most infectious laugh and kindest heart of anyone I have met. He never met a stranger and if you needed him for anything, he was there..... No questions asked.
Jacque, my prayers are with you and your amazing family.

Kaysie Morris - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

GI

“ I didn't know Adam. I lived Adam. For an all too brief moment in time we were nearly inseperable. He was there for me through all of it when my world was crumbling. I can only hope that I had half the impact on him that he had on me. I don't think I'll ever meet anyone else like him...

I loved him and thank you for letting the world live him like I did, if only for a little little while.

-Gina

Gina - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

KM

“ Our prayers are with each of you.

Keith and Carol Mullins - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

CH

“ I know how it is to lose a son. I know your hearts are broken. I am Corena's mother and she was a friend of Adam's and spoke of him frequently. She had plans to meet with him in Dallas Thursday to talk. They seemed to have a connection. She was someone that Adam opened up with concerning his illness.

Many things are going through your minds. Many questions are still unanswered. I pray for your peace; that you will, in time, have understanding.

Adam seems to have touched many, many, people. Corena tells me he dressed up like Jesus one night and it was if it were really him. The costume was great, but it was the heart of the boy who wore it that made it believable:)

Hold his memory firm in your souls. Look for him in the skies. Listen for the sounds of the wind through the trees and know that he is safe.

With compassion,

Connie Harton

Connie Harton - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

JL

“ Dear Jacque and Family,

Words cannot express how sorry I am of your loss. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.

*Love,
Jon Scott*

Jon Little - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

AR

“ The words to describe how you effected myself and numerous others can't be typed. They were shown in the crowd that gathered for you.

You are loved, and missed.

Alex Rains - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

JJ

“ *He lived lifetimes...
And were able to catch a glimpse for a while.*

Jud Jones - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

MM

“ We are so sorry to hear of your loss. Our thoughts and prayers are with each of you. All of our love to you at this extremely difficult time.

Marsha Mullins - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

A(

“ Please know you are in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

Allison and Crosby Amos (Mullins) - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

SR

“ My heart broke when I heard the news about Adam. I am sad that such wonderful, loving people had to experience such a great loss. I have fond memories of Adam as a boy. He was always full of energy and smiles. I pray for God to bring each of you strength and grace over the months to come.

SunHee Robinson - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

BB

“ Dear Glenn and Jacque:

We have been out of town and learned only moments ago about this terrible loss. Adam spent quality time here with us last summer when he, Chris and Glenn assembled our gazebo. He was up and cheerful every single day. We are stunned and deeply saddened by his untimely passing....and so very sorry he had to leave us all so soon.

Please know that we love you and share this sadness with you.

Bill and Mary Bruce

Billy and Mary Bruce Burt - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

DW

“ It has often been said that to die with the "best regrets" is the most one can ask for. One of my not so "best" regrets is not knowing the wonderful ADAM SHACKELFORD as a man. I remember well --- when Jacque came into Dr. Jean Browne's office to tell her she was "expecting." There were a lot of tears. The "expectation" was "unexpected." Dr. Browne was marvelous about the matter. She brought her dog to school -- so Jacque should bring her baby to school. Simple as that! And then I got "diaper duty." So did a lot of us in Las Mascaras. Jacque never missed teaching a class or directing a production on the TJC stage and Adam -- PRECIOUS, Adam --- was always "in-tow." His "baby years" were special to all of us. We had MANY stories --- and some were repeated --- much to Adam's chagrin --- during honors in 2000 for Dr. Browne.

David Wren - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

DW

“ ---- (Part II) ---

Last Halloween --- Jacque sent me a photo of Adam as a pirate. Johnny Depp to be sure. Although far more introspective than I believe even Mr. Depp could be. -- When I received word that Adam had "wandered along" ---my heart decided to break. It is broken still -- thinking of his precious mother -- my teacher, still -- and of all the Las Mascaras FAMILY. I hated "diaper duty" then -- but cherish every memory of it NOW. I can't stop the tears --- God bless your soul dear, Adam. But I will see you soon --- with God's grace.

David Wren - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

CS

“ *My heart goes out to all of the Shackelford family. I did not know Adam, but I know Robin and her mom, Jacque and just by knowing them I know that Adam must have been quite a guy. I love the collage of pictures of Adam. He looks like the kind of guy that everyone would want as a true friend. I lost my dad Sept. 29, 2005 (7 months ago) and it is hard to lose a loved one, especially in your case where one is so young. We were prepared for my dad's death. He had a massive cancerous brain tumor and lived through last summer (3 months) after his diagnosis. Know that there are many friends who care. Old friends, new friends, close or acquaintances. People care and want to help and be there for you. Robin, I haven't seen you in a long time. I guess since we were at TJC. I was one of Dr. Crawford's students, but knew Jacque from the Drama Department. My thoughts and prayers will be with all of you through this trying time. God will give you the strength to get through and to remember Adam and how he affected so many lives. I can tell that from all the tributes written from so many people. Love and prayers to you,
Cassie (Spraggins) Schmidt
'86 Lee graduate*

Cassie (Spraggins) Schmidt - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

J(

“ Thank you for the wonderful thoughts and stories about Adam. He was indeed a special person. Thank you for loving him and allowing him to love you. And for being there for us as we go through this time. Those of you who still want somewhere to contribute there are now several options. Adam's Fund (Pass it on) is created to help complete some of the things that Adam wanted to do to help his friends achieve their goals. Send a check to Marvin Methodist Church and mark it Adam. OR Tyler Junior College has a scholarship fund in his name. We continue to be amazed at the comments and love that you all have shown. Thanks again for being there. Love, Jacque

Jacque (mom) - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

CN

“ I have yet to speak the words that i've always felt about Adam. Words have been spoken for me in numerous places that describe what Adam meant to me personally and what He meant to the world the he knew and that knew him. For me, Adam was the greatest man i've ever met from all the people that i've ever met and will ever meet, i have never met a nicer, kinder, more heartfilling person than Adam, & I will miss him so much.

Corin (Nuggett) Noonan - April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ A year. How is it possible. And how can I express how grateful we are for your continuing support and love. As you know, Adam was all about love and loyalty and laughing. I miss him every minute and will forever. Keep him in your heart. OK?

April 26, 2006 at 12:00 AM