

Addison Taliaferro

December 30, 1983 - July 4, 2009

Services for Addison Pierce Taliaferro, 25, of Tyler, will be held on Wednesday, July 8, at 10:00 AM at Stewart Family Funeral Home Chapel, with Rev. Dr. Jerry Goff and Pastor Robert Carter officiating. Burial will follow in Cathedral in the Pines Cemetery in Tyler under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home. Addison passed away Saturday, July 4 at his home in Tyler. He was born December 30, 1983 in Lake Charles, LA to Michael and Suzonne Taliaferro. He lived in Henderson, before moving to Tyler in 1993. He was a graduate of Robert E. Lee High School, class of 2002. He was President and owner of Amherst Oil and Gas for a little over one year where he bought numerous mineral interests in oil and gas wells all over East Texas. Addison was an avid collector of vintage performance cars, war memorabilia, and medieval weaponry. He loved to play video games and boat at Lake Palestine. Addison was a doting and loving father to a beautiful 5-year old daughter named Kendyl. As a testament to dads everywhere, Addison made sure not a day went by that his little girl wasn't provided for and cherished. He had an amazing sense of humor and a heart as big as the moon. Addison loved all animals since childhood but especially loved his two dogs, Daerg, an English Mastiff and Bulvie, an English bulldog, both named after his Celtic heritage. He will be greatly missed but our precious baby boy is now resting in eternal peace in the arms of his Heavenly Father. He was preceded in death by his maternal grandmother, Betty Jo Raley Roberts. Addison is survived by his loving family including; daughter, Kendyl Moore-

Taliaferro of Tyler; parents Mike and Suzonne Taliaferro of Tyler; sister, Raley Taliaferro of Ft. Worth; close friend Jenni Moore of Tyler; grandmother Brenda Taliaferro of Tyler; grandfathers Joe Taliaferro of Henderson and H.P. Roberts of Farmerville, LA. He is also survived by numerous aunts, uncles and cousins. Pallbearers will be Matt Goff, Clay Baskin, Seth Graves, John Howard, Joey Roberts, Randy Roberts, and Hagen Taliaferro. Memorials in honor of Addison Taliaferro may be made to the Salvation Army, 633 N. Broadway, Tyler, Texas 75702. For more information or to express condolences, visit www.stewartfamilyfuneral.com.

“Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.”
Matthew 5:4

In Addison we have lost a true friend. My prayers are with you: Mike, Suzonne, Raley and the rest of the Taliaferro family during this sad time. Know that you do not mourn alone and that many friends are here at your side. My family loved Addison as though he were an extension of ours and we will miss him until the day we are reunited with our Heavenly Father.

All my love and prayers to each of you. We will miss you "big daddy Addy" ...

Jeremiah 29:11 - For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord. Plans not to harm you, but to give you a hope and a future.

“ I wish I could be there to hug each one of you. There is nothing that I or anyone can say to ease the pain. Just know that many love you and care deeply. There are no answers right now but know that God has Addison in His arms. I pray for peace upon each one of you during the most difficult time. Also know that I will be thinking of you more than you realize.

“ Dear Michael, Suzonne and all of Addison's family,

Words cannot describe my sorrow and grief I have for all of you now.

I have been praying that the Holy Spirit will give you all the comfort, strength and HIS peace during this time of grief in the of loss of Addison.

Addison was a strong, wonderful young man, and I am so blessed to have had the opportunity to visit on the phone with Addison this past week.

We all know that Addison is in perfect peace now with our Lord Jesus Christ...oh, what a comfort to know.

I love you all, and again I express my deepest sympathy for Addison's family.

"And we know that God causes all things to work together for good to those who are called according to His purpose" (Romans 8:28)

“Ole Man, Suzonne, and Raley, there are times when hope seems be lost, it is faith that helps you find it. No words can heal the pain you are experiencing. Pray is what will help you cope. Addison will be missed dearly by those who new him. I thank God that he gave us the joy of knowing him. We will keep you in our prayers. We love you guys and miss you.

“Addison, I love you. I will always remember you. There are so many things that I wish I had said to you when I had the chance. I am eternally sorry old friend that I did not take the time to do so when I had the chance. I will pray for you brother. Your parents are allowing me the honor of helping to carry you home. So many memories, I don't remember you not being there. You are in a better place now, we will meet again. Then we will have one of our long talks like the old days, Save a place for me bro.

“ You do not know me but I feel a very strong connection to you because of your relationship to all three of my daughters(Caroline Akers, Danielle Akers, and Jacqueline Dildy.They have all worked for your company but you have been more than an employer to them.You have welcomed them like family and I thank you for that kindness. The girls have spoken so often of your family and the closeness.I know your son is in a better place but as a parent and sibling that is a hard concept to grasp.I send my deepest regrets and heartfelt sympathy that in time the sadness subsides and the happy memories take over.

Please disregard.*

*Mike, Suzonne, and Raley my thoughts and prayers are with you at this time of sorrow. Im very sorry about Addison. Man, I can remember us playing in the back yard on Slaydon St. almost everyday after school while we were growing up. And I could never forget all the crawfish bowls and that summer trip we took to Louisiana together. Those remain some of the most cherished memories I have from when we were just kids. The Taliaferro family is very dear to the Crawford family's heart. Know that we love you all and that you all will be in our prayers during this difficult time. God bless.

“ Addison you were as close to a brother as they get. We talked on the phone 5 times a day about absolutly nothing. Youve saved my life before and im forever grateful. The thing ill miss most is how much you hated to get caught smiling, thats why i constantly tried to make you. And to the Taliaferros i cannot even imagine your grief at this time. However, i know Addi-Daddi is done suffering. He was tired. He is now getting that rest that he so longed for. I love you guys and hope we can remain friends for an eternity.

“ My heart is with the Family and Friends of Addison during this period of mourning.

I only got to spend a little time with Addison at the Lake last August, but I learned so much about him in that short time. I distinctly remember him spending numerous hours playing one on one, so lovingly and gingerly, with his precious daughter, Kendyl. The two of them played so well together. I remember telling others about how I thought he was such an amazing father.

I also distinctly recall him having a keen knowledge of history. I remember overhearing a conversation that he and his father had about Roman military strategy over breakfast one morning. I was so impressed by his enthusiasm and knowledge of history.

Addison was a great Dad and brilliant man. He will be missed.
