“ Your mom was a Rare and Precious Jewel. A lady of Sweetness and Kindness, Encouraging Words and Smiles. When I think of her,
I think of Sunshine and a breath of Fresh Air.
Ah, for the day when "The last enemy, death, shall be destroyed and there will be no more pain, nor tears, nor suffering, nor death" (I Cor.15:26; Revelation 21:4)
I look forward to The Day of that Great Reunion. GOD hasten The Day!

I love you forever.

“ So sorry to hear about aunt Agnes as we always called her. I think about you all quite often and will keep you in our prayers. Our sympathy goes out to you , we know how cruel the disease is that she had. I like to remember the good days when they lived down the road from us.

Love ya'll Bennie and Alice

“ Becky and I are so sorry to hear of Grandma Aggie's passing, but are so excited to know that the heavens are shouting with joy to have her. Her long life is a tribute for us all. She and her loving family are true examples of genuine love, true compassion, and gentleness of spirit. She will forever be in our hearts and will be missed. Blessings to the entire family. May you find peace in knowing she is with God, and continued love for one another.

*We love you dearly,
