Followed with a million other questions to make sure he knew everything about you within five minutes of meeting, he made everyone feel special. His true joy in life was meeting and making new friends and attending celebrations.

“ We loved meeting our little neighbor Alex when he was just 2. He sure made living on Elaine Dr. such fun. Halloween, him driving around around on that golf cart when he got older and rescuing a dog that we were dog sitting and got loose. He came driving up with the dog next to him on the seat and so proud he found her. He'd pop over when he was a youngster to just watch TV with Ed. We have such fond memories as do our family and friends who also met him. He was one of the best parts of living on Elaine Dr. And will always be in our hearts. Our condolences to all his family and friends. With love from Ed and Jenny Davis.
