“ I remember seeing Sasha with Diana in the hospital when she was 1 day old. She was already expressing her personality when the nurse came to draw blood from her tiny heel and it took several tries. I saw her immediate comfort and calming when Diana talked to her and held her close. That bond of love will never be broken even with her passing from our earthly arms. Let God surround you with his comfort and peace at this time and know that he is with you and Sasha. God will carry all of your pain and your burden and give you rest. Some things in this life, we will never understand, but have faith that all will be revealed to us in God's time. We pray for your daily healing. With love, Melissa and Virgil

“ What a precious "loan" from heaven! How our earthly hearts ache at the loss of such a sweet and dear child but how our heavenly hearts can rejoice in her going home to be with her heavenly father - safe, secure and joyously happy - looking forward to the reunion with her earthly family - in the heavenly realm. Galen and I are lifting you in our prayers with complete knowledge that our father is holding you in His arms.
