“ We didn't know each other long, but the past 2yrs was a life time with Amanda. We bonded instantly! She's was a Wonderful person inside and out... Her personality, smile and Big heart we will never forget. We had great times, experiences and conversations that were the craziest but serious at the same time. You Brightened our lives! Thank you for being a part of our lives you will be truely, truely forever missed! We Love You!

“ Amanda was the base of so many good times growing up. She was constantly making us laugh and always ready for fun... rolling down the hill wrapped in Saran Wrap, mud football, swimming in her clothes, so many memories that I'll cherish. Prayers for peace and comfort.

Judy Bergbower, these are some of my favorite memories. Amanda always had the best birthday parties and we looked forward to you crashing each year! So many of my fun childhood memories involve Amanda, Mary and their family. I am so sad to hear this news, it is truly heart breaking. Please know that I am thinking about you all and sending my love and prayers.
