Heaven has gained such a sweet angel and it's hard not to feel like being selfish and wanting him here with everyone else. The days that rained after your passing were the tears of the angels and God himself. They wept for us. They wept because they had to take you. You are needed now with the rest to watch over us. You are still smiling, laughing, and singing. I know heaven is being fed well with you Tacho. Keep watching over all of us and we will see you again

“ If every person in the world could speak to a Tacho Soto every day there would no wars, only love and laughter...and wisdom...and pranks and jokes. Never have I spoken to anyone that consistently made my day better. Without fail. His job was as insane as mine but he always calmed me, made me laugh, did his job supremely well, and shared wisdom, the love off his family and friends, and his life's stories with me. I wish I had recorded him. Everyone says nice things when someone dies, but I said this about him to him constantly because he amazed me. My heart breaks that the world has lost something so rare and precious. Hold my seat on the bus to heaven mi amigo because I know you will be there...everytime I hear thunder now I will know it is you making God laugh at this stupid world. Kim Carlton...for you, Kimi
