“ My family moved from Paducah in 1977, but I had some great memories of Andrew! His sister, Gillian was younger than me but I remember her in some of the same circles that I was around. Tish, Andrew's mom, played golf. She loved golf! I was always at the country club swimming pool. Every summer day, my girlfriends and I would have our moms take us the pool. One day, early in the summer, Tish came to me and asked if I would watch Andrew in the pool while she played golf. I loved it and I loved playing with him. I was the baby in my family and all my sisters were much older than me. He was my best buddy in the pool. We played all summer long. I moved the next year and never saw him again. But he left an impression on me! I can still see that little red headed boy in the pool laughing and having such a wonderful time. Everyone called me by my nickname, Booger, but Tish did not! So Andrew didn't either. He called me Linda. I thought about him on and off and when my husband and I were thinking of a name for our second boy, I said I wanted Andrew! I told my husband about how I loved playing with my little friend in Paducah at the pool. My husband loved it! Now our Andrew is 30 years old, married to a wonderful nurse and he gets to play his passion every day of his life which is Golf!! He is a Golf Professional down in South Texas. I didn't know the grown up Andrew Orr, but after reading passages on Facebook, I wanted to share this tiny memory. His family will always be in my prayers! Linda Diersing Bryant

“ Andrew was a wonderful man. He never met a stranger. Everyone was family or a great friend. He loved life and everything it represented. He was a great father and husband and was always cheerful.

Andrew lit up a room with his presence and his light will follow him wherever he may go.

Prayers go out to the Orr family.

May his family be picked up by the Heavenly Father hands and bring peace with his memories in his absence.

Andrew was always cheerful and never met a stranger. Everyone was family or a great friend. He loved life and everything it represented. Most of all he loved his wife dearly and was so happy when they had both of their sons. He was a loving father. When Andrew entered a room he lit it up with his presence and his light will follow him where ever he may go.

*Prayers go out to the Orr family.
May his family be picked up and watched over by his Heavenly Fathers during your absence.
