“ Hello Anna Lou Britton's Family,

I am so sorry to hear of your loss I had talked to Ann in the past and we discussed some genealogy which I am the family genealogist. I know that she is not at rest and home with the Lord is which were we all work our whole lives to get to. I hope some of you will contact me because I would love to be in contact with different members of my family. Please know that I share in your loss and know that it may take you a little while to contact me be please do. Your Mom, Grandmother, Great-grandmother from what I could tell over the phone sounded like a very likable and sweet person. I wish I had lived in Texas because I would have made the trip to Tyler to meet her and discuss the family. Again sorry for your loss and look forward to hearing from you in the future. Your cousin Kenneth
