“ So many of the sweetest memories of my life involve my cousin Anne Marie. When we were kids, my Uncle Bill took us camping on the "Hull Place". It was Uncle Bill, Anne Marie, Katy, my brother Will and I believe Lee Hull was there too. We left the camp to fish in the stock pond and when we got back we saw the cows had invaded. Uncle Bill said "Anne! the cows are eating our Oreos!" Anne put her hands on her hips and threw her head back saying "OH NO!" and then she got tickled and belly laughed and had us all laughing. It makes me so happy to remember all the times Anne had me laughing out loud. She was a blessing in my life and the lives everyone she met.

“ Anne was my cousin. But also an inspiration on how to live life. Pure joy and happy about life and living it. She loved unconditionally and had a strong bond with God. I have no doubt heaven open it's doors and made room for this wonderful soul. I love you Anne Marie, forever in my heart.

“ Anne Marie had the sweetest, purest soul. I had the privilege of meeting her when I started working at Breckenridge Village. She always had a smile on her face and she loved God and loved to tell others about him. I know her Daddy was waiting with open arms to welcome her to her Heavenly home. She will be missed ❤️ Rosie Simmons
