“ Ray and I are so saddened to hear of Tony's passing. We definitely would have been at his visitation and his service if we'd known. We had no idea that he was even ill. Tony was a very nice man, Smart also! We liked him a lot. He worked very hard I think to keep up the place to keep it period... and it probably was overwhelming to him because he alone had to do so much to the place which he had purchased from us in 2004. He came here from California and purchased our home and paid CASH for it, which was most impressive. I almost feel some guilt because I know how hard it was to take care of the place and I just hope and pray that that did not have anything to do with shortening Tony's life. 2 friends and I were driving by one day and Tony was out in the yard and we stopped and visited with him a while. I do know that he was in a very stressful situation and I was very saddened for Tony because he was a very hard worker probably all his life and he definitely did not need the pressure nor deserve anyone taking advantage of him and having to struggle and work that hard to survive. I feel that this may have taken a great toll on Tony! I just pray that he is now resting in complete peace !!! Ray and I extend our heartfelt sympathy, love and prayers to the entire Bell family and his loved ones. We are so sorry! I also hope and pray that each and every one of you can always focus on your Fondest Memories with him and your most cherished moments with Tony and that it will keep your hearts smiling always! I remember stopping by one day and visiting with him a few minutes outside. We talked politics. Tony ended up going into the house and getting this book that he wanted me to read call John Adams and I did take it with me and I actually still have it. I did not return it ...I should have but maybe not? Who knows? It is a reminder of him when I see it! Anyway we laughed a lot while talking about politics and that's my last memory with him ... and that's what I want to remember. Tony did like to laugh and... he had a great laugh! Our deepest Sympathy and Blessings!!!! Ray & Arlene Todd; Tyler, Texas
