“ Aunt Elizabeth Paula and Ken, my love thoughts and prayers are with you. I havent crossed this path in life to know how it feels but I know he isnt suffering anymore. This hit me like family we always were like family growing up and still have the feeling in my heart through this trying time. Aunt Elizabeth you were the kids mom when mom wasnt around, the one to hug and cry on and tell us it would be ok. I love you and you will be ok its just hard I know. you have family who love you and hope all the neighborhood get together more and you come to them too. I find the ones around me take one day at a time he loved you I remember.
Im thinking about you
