“ We're broken hearted for the loss of our dear friend Arnie. I've considered him to be my other father for so many years. Our two families have been through everything together and we will go through this together as well. I know there is a confidence that Arnie is abounding in the glory of God. I'll never forget the impact he had upon me and the rest of our family. Arnie has left a legacy in all his children. May God bless you all.
