

Ashley Trant

February 18, 1982 - March 27, 2013

Ashley Prothro Trant died in Lafayette, Louisiana on March 27, 2013, after a brief illness, at the age of 31. She was born February 18, 1982, in Dallas, Texas, to Thomas and Kimberly Prothro of Tyler, Texas. She graduated from Grace Community School in 2000 and attended Texas A&M University, in College Station, graduating with a degree in Biomedical Engineering in December 2003.

Ashley married her first love, Travis Wheeler Trant, on August 24, 2002. The Lord blessed them with four beautiful children, Amon (8), Garrett (6), Cody (4), and Anna Clair (2). Ashley was a wonderful mother and wife who loved her family with every ounce of her being. She loved life and was a blessing to all who knew her. Her friends knew her and loved her like a sister. She didn't form casual relationships, but developed life-long, loving friendships.

Ashley is survived by her husband and four children, her parents, her brother Evan Prothro and wife Julie of Austin, Texas; her maternal grandparents, Allen and Arlene Burt of Tucson, Arizona; her in-laws Sam and Tricia Trant of Tyler; Clay and Kera Trant of Miami, Florida; Joshua and Heather Trant of Yonkers, New York; and Katie and Nathan Jennings of College Station, Texas. Ashley will be missed by all and a day will not go by that she will not be remembered.

“ 9 Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. 10 Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers.

Galatians 6:9-10 (NIV)

While the death of Ashley is a time of mourning, it can also be a time of joy and reflection. Ashley's life has been described as one who formed relationships and cared for others, and basically was good to all she met. As she has passed, it is important to remember that she is reaping a plentiful harvest. Praise the Lord that her life was well lived. We don't understand God's plan for her short time here on earth, but my prayers are lifted to those that she left behind, that you may rejoice in her life and continue to know God's loving kindness. God bless you all.

*May you see God's light on the path ahead
When the road you walk is dark.
May you always hear,
Even in your hour of sorrow,
The gentle singing of the lark.
When times are hard may hardness
Never turn your heart to stone,
May you always remember
When the shadows fall-
You do not walk alone.*
