Mr. Irby was born December 17, 1922 in Bunky, Louisiana to George Monroe and Lottie French Irby. He passed away Thursday, July 9, 2009 at Hospice of East Texas in Tyler.

Mr. Irby served in the U. S. Army from 1942 to 1945. He married Margaret Williams in 1946 and they moved to Tyler in 1948. They joined the First Baptist Church and became active in Sunday school, working primarily with young people. Aubrey was employed at Story Wright when he had an opportunity to enter business with a partner as a dealer for the Eastman Kodak Company copy machines. They soon bought the Muzak franchise which later became an FM radio station (KTYL) and then an AM station (KZAK). They were the first to have a country western format in East Texas. Although Aubrey never set out to draw attention to him, his life of public service touched many lives and put him in the spotlight on numerous occasions. As an active member of the Tyler Junior Chamber of Commerce, Aubrey served as the 44th President. He brought the "Miss Texas" pageant to Tyler and sponsored many other community projects. Additionally, Aubrey was a member of Tyler Masonic Lodge 1233 and a charter member of Sharon Temple of the Shrine. He was a Life Member of the Alpha Kiwanis Club of Tyler where he served as President and a Life Member and President of Kiwanis International. “ I had met Mr. Irby at the Tyler Jaycees Past Presidents Banquet in the past. He was a very interesting man with a wealth of experience and information in Community Relations. I enjoyed the visits I was lucky enough to have with him. We are sympathetic to your loss but celebrate his life. God Bless, Monica Douglas. Board of Directors, Tyler Jaycees.

“ Aubrey was a great friend to me and to my family. My parents, Herschel and Lucylle Fulmer of Nacogdoches, held him in high regard. Aubrey helped us start the Hideaway Lake Kiwanis Club. He will be greatly missed.

“ Aubrey exemplified Christlike in every sort of a way. I never heard him speak a harsh word of anyone. He was as distinguished in his daily life as he was in his multiple careers and servanthood to this community. His passing will leave a great gap in our community and lives. I will miss his wise counsel in Kiwanis. We have lost a great Christian man.
