“ When Byron and I married I had two small sons that came with me into the marriage. I just wanted to thank Audrey for treating Jason and Chad so sweetly when we visited her. That really meant a lot to me. Audrey taught me a lot about being a parent since my own mother passed away when I was 17. I remember her advice about "healthy neglect" so that a child can learn to entertain themselves. It was great advice when Jill and John came along. She was a sweet mother in law. I appreciated her.

“ Dear Crowe Family:

Your mother was a special person. When I first met her in San Augustine I felt welcomed and loved. She did so much for Byron and I and everything was really appreciated. In many ways she was more of a mother to me than my own. I remember that she would call the bedroom Cass? and that meant to me that I was accepted into the fold. Christmas at the Crowe?s was such fun and filled with love.

I will always remember the wonderful meals she prepared and the Sundays when the Cowboys were playing, dinner was ready early. Trips to Baylor and College Station were such fun, as she did see thing that most of us missed. I am not sure if she enjoyed her flight out to Los Angeles but it was fun to have Audrey and Roy for a week in the big city.

I know that you will miss her but you do have such great memories of the wonderful and fulfilling life she lived.

Love, Cass

“ I have great memories of the many times I stayed at Byron's home in San Augustine and the hospitality shown by both Mr. and Mrs. Crowe. It was always a pleasure to be with the family.

Mrs. Crowe always made me feel right at home and somehow she tolerated our staying up half the night playing with our ham radio.

“ I never saw Mom cry much growing up, but I'll always remember her starting to cry when Dad took me to A&M my freshman year. All these years later, and all the Ags I've met, I now understand why she cried!

(Or maybe just tears of Joy that I was finally leaving???)

Seriously, I thank everyone for their thoughts, kind words of remembrance, and help during this last month. We'll always remember Mom, and have lots of good time stories to relive!

And a very special thanks to my sisters for taking care of Mom and Dad so well up in Tyler!
