“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. This is one of the most difficult things we must face in this life. May it comfort you to know that others are deeply touched by your loss. But the bible assures us at Psalms 34:18 that God is near to those broken in heart and those crushed in spirit he saves. He also promises that we will be able to see our loved ones again. Jesus own words found at John 5:28,29 tells us there will be a resurrection. What a wonderful hope! He also says that soon on the earth there will be no more pain, suffering and especially death. Revelation 21:3-5 We anxiously await the day when we will no longer lose those we love. May these bible thoughts bring you comfort at this most difficult time.

“ Bob, Sue & Mr Droder

I'm very sorry to hear about the loss of your mother and wife. I caught the news on the internet. Hopefully you have tons of wonderful memories and smiles and laughter fill the room when you think and talk about her. I'm sure your mother is proud and grateful for the family you were...and all the grandchildren!! These 24 hour days seem to go by much more quickly as the years march on. Live a life that honors your mother as our time to be re-united with loved ones probably comes much quicker than we can imagine. All my best to all of you...lots of love...and I wonder if they have golf courses in heaven? Someday I hope we all know the answer to that question!

Again...all my best...and lots of love!

your old, childhood friend,

Doug
