“ To the family of Finley Andrew. We are so sorry to hear of your loss. Even though we have never met, we feel heartbroken for you. We experienced a similar loss last December with the death of our only grandbaby, Jonas. He was only 12 days old. It has been a very trying time for us all. Going through this experience has taught us how vital it is to lean on the hope found in the bible. One scripture that is very comforting is Isaiah 41:10,13. It says in part: "I am grasping your right hand." God will give you the strength you need to endure if you just grab tight hold of his hand and lean on him. My you too find comfort in family and friends and from ones who share the same grief. One thing that helped our daughter and son-in-law was a brochure called: "When Someone You Love Dies". We have an extra copy and can send it to you if you like. Please feel free to email us.

Our sincere thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time.
