

Baby Ruth Tyiska Wynne

May 2, 1931 - June 27, 2020

Baby Ruth Tyiska Wynne, 89, was born in Overton, Texas on May 2, 1931, the tenth child of Demorie and Bessie Tyiska.

Mrs. Wynne graduated from Texas College in 1952 and married Elmer J. Wynne. She taught in Tyler public schools for over 20 years at Peete, St. Louis and Rice Elementary schools. It was her passion. She was a faithful member of St. James CME working with missionary and youth. She loved her family and loved planning family reunions.

Ruth Wynne passed away Saturday, June 27, 2020 surrounded by her children and grandchildren at her home in Tyler. A private burial was held on June 29, 2020 at Evergreen Cemetery.

Mr. Elmer Wynne preceded her in death, as well as five sisters, Linnie Newsome, Eula Wiley, Ora Smith, Demetrius Sims, and Erma Jean Jones; and three brothers, John Tyiska, James Tyiska, and Alex "AW" Tyiska. Mrs. Wynne is survived by her loving family including her daughter, Capri Inge (Ray); son, Marcus Wynne; grandchildren, Antionette Green (Lionell), Anthony Inge, Marketa Lane (Lamont), Amber Santaella (Josh), Marcus Wynne II, AJ Wynne, Tyler Wynne, and Wesley Wynne; seven great-grandchildren, Marsean Lane, JaDain Lane, Autumn Robinson, Mason Santaella, Madison BRE Lane, Maxwell Santaella, and Lynell Green; her sister, Belvia Strickland of Chicago; and numerous nieces, nephews and other relatives.

*Beautiful Beautiful Beautiful
Though my heart is saddened by Aunt Ruth's transition I will always hold dear all those memories. Capri, Marcus and family know that she finished her race, she kept her faith and now she victorious with God. Now we must cherish and share memories so generations to come will know their Aunts and Uncles and the stories. Let us continue to Love, liftup, encourage and be there for one another. I Love All Y'all!*
