“ Dear Bee,
You were a great employer, but you were the best friend anyone could have. I know you took cokes,ice,cups,napkin and peanut butter crackers for your fiends in Heaven.Sorry we didn't get to go to the boats one more time. Henry

Dear Bee,

You were a kind, gentile lady with so much compassion for your fellow man or woman.It was always a joy for me to see your smiling face when I would help Henry with the yards. Your generosity was know by all.You lifted my spirits many times and I hope I gave you as much joy. I didn't know you as long as Henry, but I felt that I had known you a good portion of my life. You had a rare gift of being you, real all the time which is a gift. I know God is patting you on the head and saying "MY Precious Child".

Just know you were loved by us both and we won't forget you.
Our deepest sympathies to all the family.

Sincerely,

Henry & Ann Rodriguez
