

Bessie Krasner

February 28, 1922 - July 26, 2008

Bessie Luskey Krasner died Saturday, July 26, 2008: she was 86 years old.

Adored by her family and many friends, Bessie was a kind soul and devoted friend. Her laugh was unmistakable and her smile contagious. She truly enriched the lives of those who loved her. Born February 28, 1922 to Mollie and Abraham Luskey in Ft. Worth, Texas, Bessie was the youngest of seven children. She met and married a handsome young soldier named Bernard Krasner in 1943, then moved to Tyler when Bernard returned from the war. There they joined Bessie's sister and brother-in-law, Grace and Abe Laves, in the retail jewelry business. In Tyler they built a beautiful life and a beautiful family. She cherished her two boys, Larry and Marvin, and regarded her daughters-in-law as her own. She had a strong independent relationship with each of her grandchildren, each very special. She will be laid to rest beside her beloved husband Bernard who passed away in 1988. She is survived by her children, Leslie and Larry Krasner, Susan and Marvin Krasner and grandchildren Robin and Loren Krasner, Gennye and Dr. Matthew Krasner, Amy Krasner and Carrie Krasner. Bessie will be remembered at 10:00 am today at Stewart Funeral home in Tyler with Rabbi Alan Learner officiating, followed by a graveside service at 3:00 pm at Ahavath Sholom Cemetery in Ft. Worth. Honorary pallbearers will be Herschel Sobel, Wiley Roosth, Sydney Ginsberg, Joe Ginsberg, and Jim Hill. Memorial contributions can be made to Ahavath Achim Synagogue, 3501 Donnybrook Avenue, Tyler, Texas 75701 or Hospice of East Texas, 4111
