

Betty Fuller

June 12, 1928 - April 4, 2017

A memorial service for Betty Gray Fuller, age 88, of Tyler, will be held on Saturday, April 8, 2017, at 11 a.m. in the chapel of Stewart Family Funeral Home, 7525 Old Jacksonville Highway, in Tyler, with Ron Schultz officiating. A private burial service is scheduled for Rose Hill Cemetery in Tyler prior to the memorial service under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home. Betty passed away peacefully Tuesday, April 4, after a long battle with Alzheimer's disease and a lung disorder.

She was born June 12, 1928, in Olden, (Eastland County) Texas to William Edgar and Lola Mamie Gray and grew up in Conroe, Texas, where she graduated from high school. Courted by a dashing young sailor named Al Fuller at the end of WWII, she married him at age 17 and they enjoyed 57 happy years together, primarily in Katy, Kingsville, and Tyler. Their marriage — a union built around devotion to each other and to God — resulted in four children, seven grandchildren, and seven great grandchildren. And it was within this framework of family, where she offered boundless love and nurturing, that she found her highest fulfillment in daily life.

Betty was preceded in death by her devoted husband, Al; sister and brother-in-law, Louise and Elmo Hampton; sister, Clayre Kirby; brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Milton and Margaret Fuller; brother-in-law and sister-in-law, H.C. and Mildred Fuller; and great grandson Liam Lowe.

brother-in-law, Jamon Kirby; and, in addition to her beloved grandchildren and surviving great grandchildren, eleven nieces and nephews.

If desired, memorials may be made to Shiloh Road Church of Christ, 1801 Shiloh Rd, Tyler, TX 75703, where Betty, along with Al, was an active member for many years.
