“ Price Family: I just want you to know that even though I am not there with you, all of you are in my thoughts and prayers. Betty was a wonderful mother-in-law, so kind and caring. She always wanted to make sure things were just right when Dan, Joey and I came for a visit. I gues I will always remember when she came to Kansas City to help after Joey's birth. Dan picked her up at the airport and she wondered where her grandson was, doesn't that sound like her. Then on Sunday we all went to church. Dan was preaching, but Betty could not take her eyes off of her new grandson. She was so excited to be a grandma (Mimi). She had an impact on my life that is hard for me to put into words, but she was so elegate and loving. She had such a strong relationship with the Lord and I rejoice with all of you that she is now walking hand in hand with Jesus. Love to all of you,
Brooke
