“ Sorry Debra for your loss, and for Linda and Julie's loss. My dad passed away 3 years ago. I was not with your mother much, but I was glad I did get to know her. Love, Deborah Erickson

“ To the family and directly to Bennie & Tommy. So sorry I couldn't attend the memorial but I am with you in thought. I just lost my sister on August 27 (Mae Dean Wright, Herman's mother) and I can understand the feelings you are dealing with. May God's comfort be with you all!

“ Betty's sister, Marion, was one of my classmates, and Ben was a classmate of my younger sister, Gail. When I would spend the night with Marion, Betty was always so sweet and kind to me although I was a little younger than she. I still loved seeing her all through the years. My love and prayers are with you all. "When you lose someone you love, you gain an angel you know."

“ Betty was my oldest sister. I will remember the good times that we had together. She had a sense of humor, was a good joke teller, and most of all she was the best of cooks. I will miss her very much. I know she is in a better place, and most of all she the pain that she has suffered with is no more. I love you Sis.

“ I believe that Betty is finally at peace and out of pain and getting to see first-hand how beautiful true love and grace is ... She had a rough journey, that's for sure, but now she's looking through unscaled eyes face-to-face at her creator and getting to experience this greatness for eternity ... farewell, Betty Jean, the rough ride is over ... Lotsa Love, Andrea

“ All our thoughts and prayers are with you all. I am glad that I had a chance to see Aunt Betty recently and that she got to meet her Great Niece Abigail McAlvain for the first time. We love her and know that she is in a better place now. Regrettably we will not be able to attend the service.

“ Betty was my good friend and I will forever remember our domino games, discussions of current events in the Dallas News and good cooking around the kitchen table on Bluff Route. I will not forget her...

“ Betty was my only sister and losing her is so very much harder than I could ever imagine. The memories of all the good times we shared together will remain to comfort me.

I know that she is at peace now and her suffering has ended.

My heart and prayers are with her children and grandchildren.

“ We were so sorry to learn of your loss. Know that our love and prayers are with you during this most difficult of times.
*Thanks to Marion, who cared for her during her last days. May God richly bless you for your dedication and love for your sister.
Please accept our regrets that we are unable to attend her services. Anthony has no one to teach his classes when he is away & he is having some issues with his knees that make us unable to attend.*
*Love & prayers for all of you,
Anthony & Lucielle Henegar*
