“ A great man Bill was. So blessed to have met him and & Sonja McClure close to 30 years ago as their newspaper girl. All the memories I have of being at their house during the time they lived in Sugarcreek. Memories I will never forget and would give anything to sit in their kitchen one more time having a cup of hot chocolate on a snowy day or ice water on a hot summer day. They always made sure I was taken care of when out delivering the papers. And if I was home late from my paper route, my parents always knew where I would be. My heart breaks for the entire McClure family, but I know Bill is in heaven with no more pain. Until we meet again. Wish I could be there with you guys this weekend.

“ Enjoyed the conversations we had with Mr. Bill. Always had some good stories. Still have all the Gaither trio albums he bartered off to me for a cast iron bank. Not sure who got the best deal but we were both happy with what we got. Rest in Peace my friend and may God bless your eternal rest and also blessings to your beautiful family.

“ My memories of Bill McClure are from when he and his family lived in Wadsworth, Ohio, and were members of the Church of God Prophecy in Medina. I had just recently moved out on my own and he and Sonja took me under their wings as family. I have fond memories of spending holidays with them and sitting at their table for lots of meals.

Bill's contributions to the local church included restoring the church building the congregation bought, building a new pulpit custom fit for the Pastor, and building a life-size cross for the Easter play.

Bill was a mentor to many young men in the congregation and set the example of what a Christian man, husband and father should be.

*"Some glad morning when this life is o'er, I'll fly away;
To a home on God's celestial shore, I'll fly away.
I'll fly away, Oh Glory, I'll fly away;
When I die, Hallelujah, by and by, I'll fly away."*

Fly away Bro. Bill - see you over there.

My memories of Bro. Bill McClure run deep into my life. I met Bill in the mid 70s in Medina Ohio. I was just a young Christian. I expressed to the local church that God had called me into the ministry. I had a good job at General Motors. I knew one day soon I would have to leave the security of our local church. I had no training in any field of labor to supplement my income. Bill offered me a job telling me he would train me to be a carpenter. He was very patient and gentle with me. He paid me more than I was worth. His patience paid off. Finally I learned to be a carpenter. The ministry has been my life's vocation. I can't tell you how many churches I have built and how many I have remodeled. What he taught me greatly helped my family and my ministry. I will forever be grateful to this man and his kind acts to my family. He has gone on to his eternal reward. I will miss him. I can tell you though he is dead he will always live through me. Every time I drive a nail or saw a piece of wood I will remember him. God bless you Sonja and family. Stay faithful to God you will see him again.

“ As a young married couple, we moved to East Texas. God, in his grace and mercy, placed us next door to Bill and Sonja McClure. We were able to observe a godly family up-close. What a gift! When we learned that we were expecting twins, they celebrated with us. When our girls grew old enough to be outside more, Bill insisted on covering our patio to give them (and us) a place of protection from the hot East Texas sun. He wouldn't let us pay him, as was his "way". Chad spent quite a bit of time at our home, and Pattie became our daughters' caregiver when we were both working.

This man and his family made a lasting impression on us. We are now grandparents ourselves and can only pray that we have been the aroma of Christ that the McClure family has been to us.

One thing is certain: Heaven is celebrating the homecoming of Bill McClure!
