

Bill Powell

May 27, 1955 - December 19, 2024

Bill Powell, 69, of Tyler, Texas, passed away on December 19, 2024. Bill was born on May 27, 1955, in Dallas, Texas, to Homer Carl Powell and Mary George Shanks.

A man with a deep thirst for adventure, Bill's passion for life was matched only by his love for photography. His camera was always close by, capturing the moments that brought joy and meaning to his life. Bill's adventurous spirit took him to many places, but his ability to find beauty and wonder in the everyday world made him a unique and cherished individual.

Bill is survived by his step-sons Timothy and Jeffery McChesney; his grandson, Braylon McChesney; best friends, Jim and Vicki Henderson and family; and many lives encountered along the journey, all of whom will miss his adventurous soul and his creative eye. Graveside services will be held on Friday, January 3, 2025, at 2 p.m. at Edom Cemetery in Edom, Texas, under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home.

Bill's memory will live on through the photographs he captured and the stories he shared with all who knew him.
