

Billie Sue Magouirk

September 8, 1935 - June 12, 2025

Services for Billie Sue Magouirk, 89, of Whitehouse will be held on Monday, June 16, 2025, at 2 p.m. at First Baptist Church Whitehouse with visitation at 1:00 p.m. Rev. Mike Adams will officiate. Burial will follow at the Whitehouse Cemetery under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home.

Mrs. Magouirk passed away June 12th while in residence at Reunion Plaza under the care of The Hospice of East Texas. Sue was born September 8, 1935, in Mt. Sylvan, Texas to Henry and Macie Campbell. Sue graduated from Tyler High, subsequently attending commercial college. Sue worked as a secretary for several years and then found the job she dearly loved in the offices of Whitehouse Schools. Sue was a member of First Baptist Church and often put her much-appreciated cooking skills into action serving others at church, in the schools, and friends in the Whitehouse community. She enjoyed baking, serving others and spending time with her grandchildren brought her a special joy. She loved watching sports, Chiefs, Rangers & Cowboys were her favorites. Sue (Nana) was rarely without a smile on her face, was generous to a fault, and she loved praying for others (if she knew you, you were in her prayers).

Sue was preceded in death by both parents, one sister, Carolyn Lofton of Louisiana, and her beloved husband, Bob Magouirk. She is survived by her loving family, daughter, Cathy Lusk and husband Mike, of Tyler; son, David Magouirk and wife, Denise, of Whitehouse; grandchildren, Lindsey Cope, Chad Patton, Casey Lusk, Maegan Hearon, Jessica Ocker, Brandi Grosvenor and Morgan Magouirk; sister, Betty Lou Waters and husband John of Whitehouse, and brother, James A. Campbell and wife, Candy of Ft. Worth. Sue is also survived by 13 precious great-grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. Grandsons and sons-in-law will serve as pallbearers: Chad Patton, Casey Lusk, Rick Cope, Jake Ocker, Kasey Hearon, Hunter Bryant, and Andrew Grosvenor.

If desired, memorials may be made to First Baptist Church of Whitehouse Building Fund, 801 E. Main St., Whitehouse, TX 75791 (<https://firstw.org/give>) or to The Hospice of East Texas Foundation, 4111 University Blvd., Tyler, TX 75701 (<https://hospiceofeasttexas.org>).

“ I was in the same church with Bob and Sue for years and they were such a sweet model couple. Later, after Bob had passed, I invited Sue to play 42 along with some other friends in my home. I have many wonderful memories of times spent with Sue in my home and in hers, playing 42 and just visiting. These memories are treasures to me. She was always a very special guest and a great hostess. She was an awesome Christian lady who was devoted to her family. To know Sue was to love her. She had a heart of gold, a great sense of humor, was outgoing and friendly, and her love for Jesus came through, even during the storms of life. She was an inspiration to me and I know to many others as well. You will be missed, Sue, but we know where you are. And we will meet you in heaven someday soon.

From the moment I met her I loved her. She had the sweetest spirit and loved big. She loved her family and always had that sweet smile on her face every time I saw her. Thank you Ms. Sue for your love for Jake and I know you and Momma are picking right up from when y'all had your last visit, talking about those grands and great grands. You will be missed by all your family and friends. Heaven sure gained a sweet angel no doubt. Love you sweet Ms. Sue 💕🙏
