

Billie Cowgill Tucker

January 14, 1930 - May 13, 2015

A graveside service for Billidare Cowgill Tucker, 85, of Flint, will be held on Sunday, May 17, 2015 at 2:00 PM, at Cathedral in the Pines Cemetery with Rev. Robert Carter officiating under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home.

Mrs. Tucker passed away peacefully into the arms of her Lord and Savior on Wednesday, May 13, 2015, after a courageous seven year struggle with Alzheimer's disease. She was born January 14, 1930 in Nevada, Texas to Floy Leon Page and Dare Hayden Cowgill.

Billidare was the Salutatorian of her class at Nevada High School in 1947. She graduated from North Texas University with a bachelor in education. Billidare and her husband were active members of Wedgewood Baptist Church in Fort Worth before moving to Scroggins where they resided on Lake Cypress Springs. There they became members of the First Baptist Church of Mt. Vernon. Billidare was always very active in her Sunday school class. They later moved to Flint, where they could be closer to their grandsons and family. Billidare was a very creative and artistic person who loved to paint, as well as being an established seamstress. She was very talented and loved to play the piano and sing. Her passion in life was being a wife, mom, and grandmother. In addition to her parents, Billidare was preceded in death by her husband, Dwayne Tucker and son-in-law, Timothy Biggers King.

She is survived by her loving family including daughter, Lisa Tucker King of Flint; grandchildren Tucker Andrew and wife Brittany King of Dallas and Tanner Christopher King of Flint; three sisters, Johnie Merle and husband Max Smith, Peggy Ann Marshall and Martha Lou Goin; and many nieces and nephews.

The family is forever thankful to Mable Benton and the loving staff and caregivers at Meadow Lake Memory Care and Heart to Heart Hospice. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Alzheimer's Alliance of Smith County, 211 Winchester Drive, Tyler, TX 75701.
