“ Spending the summer's with Aunt Bobbie and Uncle Bo when I was in grade school. I always looked forward to going every year. I remember my Cousin Sheri just getting her drivers license and Aunt Bobbie telling her to take me with her to the lake. I remember every Christmas them coming down to my Granny's to spend with the whole family. She once bought me tap shoes that I wouldn't take off at all and I even wore them to school to show off, only to get in trouble for making so much noise. lol. She was a strong woman, kinder than anyone I know and loved everyone. She was a treasure to be with and around. She will be so missed and loved forever. Let God take you in his arms and be welcomed into his kingdom. Your niece, Kandy Helms
