

Bobbie Biggers King

January 15, 1930 - July 27, 2021

Bobbie was born in Irene, Texas on January 15, 1930 to Hassie and Jess Biggers. She graduated from Bynum High School, Hillsboro Junior College and North Texas University. Bobbie married Harvey B. King in 1951. She taught school in Carrollton, Texas until moving to Tyler in 1955. As Harvey began his career at Brookshire Grocery Company, Bobbie taught school at Moore Junior High. She was a member of Green Acres Baptist Church and the Tyler Woman's Forum.

Her only son, Tim, was born in 1961. She dedicated herself to loving and caring for him and Harvey which included many hours and miles attending tennis tournaments across the state. She was a loving mom, wife, mother-in-law, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt and friend. She insisted on spoiling anyone that she claimed as her own.

Her greatest love was her family. She loved nothing more than enjoying a vacation with her family or sharing a meal with them. She was the most amazing cook and gift giver. She loved spending time with her friends and was sure to keep them laughing and was no stranger to a good prank. She took great pride in her grandsons, Tucker and Tanner, and was totally smitten with her first great-grandson, Wyatt Timothy King. She always tried to stay current with her many nieces and nephews and enjoyed long conversations with her sister Sue. She loved her Wonderful Wednesday outings each week with Lisa which included the beauty shop, lunch, shopping and numerous field trips, some that were deemed top secret. Bobbie loved her Atria family. She adored the residents and staff and spent many happy years enjoying their company.

Bobbie was preceded in death by her son, Timothy Biggers King and her beloved husband, Harvey B. King. She is survived by her grandchildren, Tucker and Brittany King and Tanner King; great-grandson, Wyatt Timothy King; daughter-in-law, Lisa King; and son-in-law, Ben Alford; sister and brother-in-law, Sue and Jim Hammock; nephews, Cathy and Jeff Hammock and Alice and Jeremy Hammock; and many nieces and nephews.

“ Lisa and family, I am so sorry for your loss, you are in my prayers. My mother, Joan Moore Triplett, grew up in Irene and spoke often of her visits with the Biggers family.
