

Brad Medlin

April 14, 1970 - July 16, 2006

It is with the saddest of hearts, but with faith of life everlasting in our Lord Jesus Christ, that we announce the passing of Brad Allen Medlin. Brad and his brother Chad were born on April 14, 1970 to Molly and Kenneth Medlin in Tyler, Texas. Brad is preceded in death by his Mother Molly, his older brother Scott and his twin brother Chad. To give comfort to all of us, at this sad time, may we remember these words of John Taylor: "While we are mourning the loss of our friends, others are rejoicing to meet them behind the veil." Brad is survived by his father Kenneth Medlin of Tyler, one niece Edie Michele Medlin and several aunts and uncles. The family asks that that in lieu of flowers or donations that you only remember Brad in your hearts and your prayers. The family will receive visitors at Stewart Family Funeral Home at 7525 Old Jacksonville Highway in Tyler on Thursday July 20th from 6:00pm until 8:00pm. Burial service will be at the Red Springs Cemetery located on Texas State Highway 14, in Red Springs. The grave side service will be conducted by Reverend Marvin Gardner under the caring direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home. As sadness washes over all of us, may we be comforted by the words of St. Peter of Clairvoy when he said: "At the news of his death... My tears flowed uncontrollably... but that was all right, because they made a pillow on which my heart was to rest?" May Brad rest in peace with his brothers and mother. May Almighty God bless Brad now and his blessings remain with him and Kenneth forever. For more information or to make a tribute, visit www.stewartfamilyfuneral.com.

“ Dear Kenneth,
None of us could ever know the depth of your pain, but Jesus does. He knows every moment of despair you have felt and holds every tear you have cried in his hands. Our prayer is that Jesus will hold you so closely that you can feel comfort in the words that "all things work for the good of those who believe in Him". David & I will continue to hold you in our prayers.

“ I am deeply saddened to hear about Brad. It has been many years since we were in high school together so I was equally shocked to know that Chad is also gone. I have a lot of of good and funny memories of those "twin knuckleheads". I can remember how they would always roughhouse and STAY in trouble, no matter HOW GOOD they acted in school. I guess they just always had that mischeivous look on their faces that made the teachers squirm. Brad was such a kind-hearted guy who's smile would light up the room and he was always nice to me and would go out of his way to say "hi" when passing in the hallways back in high school. I actually ran into him in Tyler a few years back and I recognized him immediately. He had the widest grin on his face. I know that you will miss that smile. Just know that he is smiling really wide in heaven now that he is reunited with his brothers and mom, and he will never leave your heart.

“ Kenneth my prayers are with you at this time of great sorrow. Brad was just the Best man at my nephew's wedding not more then a few months ago. I have had Brad and Chad in my house many times and was always amazed at how polite they were to me. I know Chris will miss Brad as he has missed Chad and that his thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Even though Brad is gone he is now with his twin and giving them the peace that they are truley bonded by. God has called them home and you should have peace of mind that they are now finally at peace with the lord Jesus.
