“ I know that God has a plan for all things that happen...and He is an AWESOME GOD. He is the only place to turn to at this time. I know that He will be holding and comforting you and your family in one arm... And that comfort will come from knowing he has Brad embraced in the other. I was working at Lil Dudes n Darlins and Brad and sis were two of my after-schoolers. That was quite a long time ago but i remembered his name...and his pic still the same fresh faced boy...full of spirit....

God BLESS each of you,

“ What sorrow for your family - the death of a child is heartbreaking. I remember Brad as a somewhat shy boy in class (I was his 5th grade teacher) - but one who loved to play soccer - but he certainly wasn't shy on the playing field. That's where he earned the admiration of other students that year - out on the playground. As you say the final goodbyes to this precious son, I hope that the peace that surpasses all understanding floods your soul and gives you solace as you grieve Brad's passing.

“ David, Landa, Bobbie, Paul, and Ashley.....I am so, so sorry for your loss of Brad. I can only imagine how much you will miss him. I have a memory of him I will never forget from when he was a toddler. Landa was out running an errand one night while David watched him. David, you had fallen asleep while trying to get Brad to sleep. Landa comes home only to find the house covered in white because Brad had found the baby powder and ran through the house squishing the bottle and making it "snow" all through the house. God Bless you all and prayers for your family.
