“ *Mrs. Freeman,
We are so sorry to hear of the death of your husband. I had seen you walking with him several weeks ago and had told Kirk that I was afraid that he was ill. We have and will miss seeing the two of you sitting on your swing watching the traffic and the people at the park. Our prayers are with you and your family.*

“ Dear Jeff, We are very sorry to hear about your Dad. My mom saw the announcement in the paper and faxed it to us today. We are thinking seriously about moving back to Tyler. When these kind of things happen it makes us wish we had never left. The grass is not always greener....
