“ To Tommy and all of Brenda's family, our sincere sympathy. In my memory Brenda had such a sweet disposition, positive attitude, and sense of humor.

And to Sandra & Winnie, I know you are already missing your sister Brenda. I've no doubt that it was fun growing up in a family of sisters to laugh and fuss with over the years (although it was probably a challenge for your brother Scott; but I'm sure that he would not have wanted it any other way).

I think cousins are a pretty important part of family, and as your first cousin I will always remember my "Cole Cousins". Even though we have all moved in separate directions over the years, we have our memories. May God bless and comfort all of you.
