“ I am the oldest of the McHugh kids. When we lived in New Jersey, I and my sisters Kathy, and Karen as the older kids were in charge of “watching, entertaining, caring for a younger sibling. I was assigned Brian. Brian was a happy kid, who became a happy adult. I always envied him that. Our age difference, and 5,000 miles limited us to only telephone visits. I regret not having spent more time with him. Love ya Bri..stay happy till we meet again

“ I’m so sorry to hear this. I worked with Brian at the old El Chico at Beckham and Fifth for a couple of years after I moved to Tyler in 1986. I reached out to him on Facebook a couple of years ago but got no response. I had some fun, wild times with Brian and the crew there, and that experience was a pivotal point in my life. I wish I could have caught up with him and told him how much knowing and working with him even for that short time still means to me. I always smile when I remember Brian.

“ Brian was my friend and co-worker. I always enjoyed visiting with him, he always came to visit with me when I was doing a demo near him. We never parted that we didn't hug and tell each other that we loved one another. Love and prayers for you Charity.

“ My uncle taught me how to play baseball and how to throw a football. He was an awesome uncle and played father to me when I was younger. I'm sorry we lost touch after my Mom died. That'll haunt me for a long time... Say hello to her, let her know how awesome Caden has turned out to be!

“ It was great to reconnect with you after all these years , I was so blessed to meet you, Tim, Michael, Patty, Karen and yes I remember when little Gerard was born in NY, back when we were kids , coming over to our house and us going to yours in Stamford. Your Mom could cook some good meals on that stove using wood. Rest in peace my friend and say hi to Patty for me. My love ,thoughts and prayers to you all.

“ Brian worked for me at Denny's and IHOP , I have never met a more intelligent , kind person . Some days he made me crazy others he made smile . I thought he had an amazing personality . I watched him grieve his sister . I was also still grieving mine . We shared that sad connection . I heart breaks that he is gone . I hope you always sing Brian ! I know you know the words to every song you have ever heard . You will be so missed by all those that love you . And to you , Charity , I'm so glad you guys had the time you had with him . You deserved all the happiness he brought you . I always thought you were both cute ! God bless all who grieve him and may we find comfort in the coming resurrection of Christ our Lord . 🥺🙏🙏🙏

“ Brian never waited until life was not hard to be happy. When I first heard the song, It's Okay by Night Birde, I thought of Brian and it just brings tears to my eyes. Take the time to listen as touches all hearts with no discrimination.
