“ I will always remember Bruce as one of my best elementary school friends in Alto. We were buddies and nick-named each other for characters of the Old West. I called him "Goodnight" and he called me "Chisholm". We had a lot of fun together! He would come to my house and we would get on his bicycle...he would pump and I would ride on the handlebars to the pond that was behind his house where we would go fishing for perch or anything else we might catch. The last time I saw Bruce he said, "Hello, Chisholm!" Bruce was a master "pencil sharpener" in our classroom. He had the sharpest pencils of anyone because he sharpened them many times throughout the day while he gazed out the window above and dreamed of being outdoors. We are saddened to hear of the passing of this memorable friend. We will always remember him and we send our sincere sympathy, prayers, and condolences to all his family and friends.
