“ To the wonderful, fun gentleman that introduced us to the High Limit area at The Eldorado, your infectious laughter will be greatly missed. I'm so thankful we were given the opportunity to meet you, and to watch you work your magic on the Slots. You were called home too soon. You gave so much to us all and still had so much to give. The world is a lesser place and diminished without you. All of our love and prayers to Phyllis and her family. Rest in Peace, Bruce.

Jay and I met Bruce and Jo many years ago when we bought their hot tub. Bruce was such a sweet man. I visited with them at church many times and helped them share wonderful birthdays. They truly had a loving family who knew how to have fun! The world lost a wonderful person but he is in Heaven now with Jo. How happy they must be. Rest in peace, Bruce and Jo. I pray the family will find peace and comfort in this knowledge.
