“ Butch was one of my favorite cousins in my early childhood. I loved to visit him and his dear mother, Tressie in Amarillo. He had such neat toys; especially an electric train mounted on a big piece of plywood. I thought that must be the greatest toy ever. And he even let me play with it.

I lost contact with Butch later on, but never forgot him. I still enjoyed talking to him during out family reunions. I will miss him very much.

God be with Barbara and all those he has temporarily left behind.

“ Dear Mrs. Cearley, Melissa & Travis:

I just happened to be searching around on the internet today and saw this. I am very very very sorry to hear of Mr. Cearley's death. I am also sorry I didn't hear of it sooner so I could have made it up there for visitation and/or the funeral. If there is anything that any of you need, please do not hesitate to let me know.

May God bless you all.

*Love,
Suzette*

“ To all my family who are missing Uncle Butch right now:
I can't even truly imagine what it is like to lose a husband, father, or a sibling...but just thinking about it makes me so sad. I am praying for you as you figure out life without him. I wish so much I could have come to the funeral. I am crying as I write this. Even though we don't see each other much anymore, I love you all. You are special people and I am so thankful to have been in on the process of Uncle Butch's illness as it helped me feel more a part of the family. It's so great to see family come together and the church family too...it renews my hope in people. I will miss my Uncle Butch. My main memories of him are him getting laughs at our expense! I love his sense of humor and his cute grins after he just teased you. See you on the other side Uncle Butch!

“ Our hearts and thoughts are with you, Barbara, Missy, Jimmy, Travis, Stacie and those grand granddaughters. There is so much we do not know or understand. We do know that God is sovereign and He reigns!.

We know you have walked through so much in the last many months. I thank God for all the support God has sent your way. I am awestruck the way you all love each other and are there for each other. Your faithfulness and steadfastness is so apparant. What a testimony of God's love. Missy, we thank you for your loving and personal reports you so faithfully sent out. Your sweet and loving spirit came through your notes.

Because we have been so far away, we have not been able to share many memories or been able to support you the way we wish that we could. We pray you will understand.

Butch was such a precious unique and wonderful child of the Father. We all were blessed by having known Butch. In my mind, I can hear his voice and see his smile and hear his singing. I can remembering him showing us that pickup he spent so many hours on; was so amazing with the details. When he did something, he did it right. He faithfully kept his yard so beautifulyl. I am reminded of his teasing children and getting smiles and laughs from them. His gentle ways and his quiet spirit are qualities I remember in him. He will be sorely missed. I am so glad his grandchildren are old enough to remember him.

May God pour His balm of love and peace and strength all over each of you in the days ahead.

Grief is real and we grive for Butch and for you, but we do not grieve as those without hope for we know whom be believe and we know where Butch is this very day.

Wish we could be there near all of you.

Our love from afar, Paul and Kathy
