“ I remember my Uncle Bill as a kind man of few words, and a big heart. He was happy to be around his family and his quiet smile still graces my memory. Uncle Bill was a source of pride to his parents and he was dearly loved by his sisters. He was a calm and steady man upon whom we could all depend. He was a true gentleman who will be missed by all who knew him, but especially by his wife, Pat and daughters, Debbie & Dana. My prayers are with the Rettenmayer family. I take great comfort in knowing that he is now in the company of his parents who loved him so much, but more importantly he is with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.
