“ I met Carol the first week that we were in the 10th grade, and we became very wonderful friends. Carol was one of my dearest friends from age 15 on. We spent summers swimming and skiing on Lake Austin, spending the nights at each others homes, and the usual things young people do. She was as beautiful on the inside as she was on the outside. Our hearts go out to Dwight who was totally devoted to Carol. They both were so blessed to find each other later in life. Mark and Family, Know our thoughts are with you. Carol was so proud of you and her precious grandchildren and their accomplishments. Carol will always have such a soft spot in my heart. All of us who know and loved her were truly blessed.
