Carol Ann Roan Payne was born on February 14, 1945 to Rheda Mae Couch and Douglas Roan in Longview, TX. Carol grew up in Tyler, TX, graduating from John Tyler High School in 1963 and then attending Tyler Junior College where she met David A. Payne, the love of her life. Carol and David were married on September 3, 1966. Carol graduated from the University of Houston with a degree in Psychology in 1967. Carol and David lived in Houston where they started their family and stayed until returning to the East Texas area in 1997.

Carol had a love for Our Lord and lived her life for Him. Carol's other joy in life was spending time with her family and close friends. Holidays were especially important to Carol as evidenced by her "Southern Living" home décor for every holiday. Carol has attended countless sporting events supporting her children and more recently her grandsons. Carol's voice was often heard as she cheered, no matter what the sport. Payne, his wife Kristi and grandsons Chad and Cameron Payne; daughter, Jennifer Coselli, her husband Richard and grandson Adam Coselli; brother, David Michael Roan, his wife Jennifer, niece Jessica Roan, niece Allison Wall, her husband Jeff and their son Hunter Wall; aunt, Frances White and cousins, Lanita Martin and Pam Hardy.

“ Mrs. Carol will be dearly missed by our family. She had a sweet, servant spirit that could be seen by all she came in contact with. My children loved Mrs. Carol and made sure her and Mr. David were invited to all their Christmas, birthday and school functions. Our hearts are very heavy at this time, but we know she is with our Heavenly Father now and would not want us to be sad. Our love and prayers go out to Mr. David and her children and grandchildren.

“ I loved Carol. She was a bright spot in my days. Knowing her these past years has made my life better. Such a sweet and kind person. She always had a kind word or a gift or just a big smile to give. I will miss her more than anyone knows. David, and the rest of the family. My thoughts are with you. And with her life long friends Linda and Charley. Love you all.
