“ My Aunt Carol was the most beautiful, giving woman I know. When my mother passed away in 1975 (Carol's sister) Carol became a second mom to me. We had so much fun when I flew to Tyler. We would hang out with my cousin David and his family then drive to Dallas to see my other cousin Shirley and her family. We would make our Greek goodies and have a wonderful time. We all took trips together especially to Estes Park in Colorado. Such good memories.

My Aunt Carol was the kind of woman who would help her family and friends without hesitation if she could. She lived her faith and now is resting in the loving arms of our Lord.

My condolences to Sewell and Walker families in the loss of this beautiful lady.

Love, Tony and Gail Chavez and family.
