

Carole Jane Beasley

January 16, 1937 - January 3, 2016

Carole Jane Hubbard Beasley died Sunday, January 3, 2016 surrounded by her loving family.

Carole was born in Conroe, Texas, on January 16, 1937, the only child of Ernest and Alma Hubbard. She grew up in Baytown, Texas, graduating from Lee High School in 1955. She attended Lee College and the University of Texas. On September 8, 1956, she married the love of her life, Earl. They shared 58 years together. Carole was a passionate artist and painter, winning many ribbons for her talent. She was a member of the Art League of Houston and the Art League of East Texas, participating in numerous exhibits in over fifty years of painting.

Her love of children was evident in all that she did, which included teaching pre-school at both St. Paul's Presbyterian Church and Gethsemane United Methodist Church in Houston. She was an active member of Bullard United Methodist Church, singing in the choir there as she did at every church she belonged to over the years.

As a wife and mother, Carole was exemplary and always very supportive of her family. Her grandchildren thrived from her special attention and each one adored her. She had a wonderful ability to make everyone feel welcome and loved. She will be greatly missed by her family and many friends.

Carole is survived by her children, Michael Beasley, Karen Beasley, and Kathi Baker and husband Steve; grandchildren Duane Beasley and wife Ivana, Angela Itty and husband Thomas, Taylor Baker, Raven Rojas and Kendall

Baker; great-grandchildren Anjana and Lilah Itty, Markus, Yohanna, Indira and Rebekah Beasley; and numerous friends.

Funeral Services will be held at Bullard United Methodist Church in Bullard, Texas, on Friday, January 8, 2016 at 10:00 AM with Rev. David Brasher officiating. Family will receive visitors one hour prior to the service.

Interment will follow immediately with a private observance at Oakwood Cemetery in Coldspring, Texas, under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home.
