

Carrie Stewart

April 24, 1919 - November 29, 2005

Carrie Lee Stewart, 86, passed away Thursday, Nov. 24, 2005, at Harmon Memorial Hospital in Hollis, Oklahoma. Funeral services will be Monday, Nov. 28, 2005 at 11 a.m. at the Stewart Family Funeral Home in Tyler with Dr. Don Walker officiating. Carrie Lee Carter was born April 24, 1919 in Childress to Ben M. and Lela Erwin Carter. She graduated from Childress High School. She and George W. Stewart were married in April 19, 1940, in Childress and lived in Tyler during the early 1940's. A native Texan and longtime resident of Childress and Abilene, they operated the Carter-Stewart Funeral Home in Childress until 1954 when the family moved to Abilene and operated funeral homes there until retirement. Carrie Lee was a loving and kind spirit, dedicated mother and wife, and a joy to be around. She enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. Her life will be remembered by all who encountered this gentle soul. Mrs. Stewart is survived by two sons, Carter and his wife Marcia of Hollis, Oklahoma, John and his wife Susan of Austin; five grandchildren, Melanie Stewart of Fort Worth, Ben and his wife Jeannie Stewart of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Stephanie and her husband Rob Christiansen of Shawnee, Oklahoma, Lindsey Stewart of Florida, and Deserae Stewart of Austin; one great-granddaughter, Haley Stewart of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; one brother-in-law, Johnnie and his wife Martha Stewart of Tyler; three sisters-in-law, Martha Carter of Palestine, Patsy and husband Don Walker and Ellen Johnston both of Tyler; and several nieces and nephews. She was a member of the United Methodist Church. Carrie Lee was preceded in death by her husband, George Stewart, Feb. 13, 1999 in Childress; her parents; three brothers, Will S., Woody and Erwin Carter; and one sister, Lula Mae Carter Powers, all of Childress. Pallbearers are Johnny L. Stewart, Chris Stewart, Neal Maynard, Russ Morrison, Rick Murphy, Shannon Murphy and Andy Walker. Family will receive friends one hour prior to services at the funeral home.