“ Mike keep that light going that your father gave you. I only met him once when Austin was born, and he was a very cheerful man and kept us laughing at the hospital. One thing for sure you have his sense of humor. I wish you all well and this time will pass, but always remember the good times. Love and miss you, Sherry, and Austin.

Love, Sierra, LeTonya and Dwight Pickett.

“ Sandy, What can I say but my heart is broken for you, Sharon, Mike and the grandchildren. We rejoice for Carroll that he is not suffering now & is with God, but I certainly know the pain & agony you will have to endure for a long time. No one knows that pain until they have gone through such a loss. Please know that I would do anything I could to help you. We (our class) are praying for you & will continue to do so. So many memories of long ago are rushing through my mind of happier times in our youth. Those times will be forever cherished.
