“ Daddy, Thank You! Thank you for giving me the most important aspects of my life by leading me to & continuing to push me toward the the unquestionable playbook of life - The infallible word of God. Without that knowledge & application I can't fathom how anyone gets through life.

You taught me how to be a man, 1st spiritually, then emotionally with true love, also honor & integrity, and lastly physically.

Remember when I told you about a year ago, when you could still understand the things we were talking about, that I spent most of my life trying to do everything I possibly could to just be like YOU!

That if I could just be like you, that's all I ever could hope to be. I meant that. I remeber how me saying that made you cry with pride.

Well, you got an added bonus to that - Cody Wofford is just like you in every way!!!

We love you & will spend the rest of our lives aspiring to be like you!

Your loving son,

Clint
