

Catherine Goodman

July 7, 1930 - June 6, 2015

She had the kind of smile that could make the angels sing, and the girl with the million-dollar smile is probably doing that now.

Cathy Goodman, nee Catherine Lumley, of Emerald Bay, was called home June 6, 2015.

Cathy, as she preferred to be called, was born July 7, 1930, in Dallas. She graduated from Sunset High School in the Oak Cliff section of Dallas and later attended Mary Hardin Baylor College. Returning to Dallas, she was employed as a secretary at Universal Pictures. It was there that she met the man she was to marry, Gene Goodman, who asked her for a date on Halloween, 1949. They married October 6, 1950.

During her marriage, Cathy adapted to life in many cities while her husband pursued a career in the motion picture business. In July, 1993, Cathy and Gene moved to the Emerald Bay community in Bullard.

Cathy is preceded in death by her father, William Elmo Lumley; her mother, Laura Lee Hogue; and her sister, Flaudie Lanette Lumley Easter.

She leaves behind two sons, Russell Goodman of Harrisburg, PA and James Goodman of Tyler; daughter-in-law Joyce M. Davis; and grandson Cole Davis Goodman.

Graveside services will be at Cathedral in the Pines on June 10, 2015. A memorial service will follow at 2:00 PM at Emerald Bay Community Church, 160 La Salle Rd., Bullard, TX, with the Rev. Dr. Darryle W. Dunks presiding. The family requests in lieu of flowers that a contribution be made to either

Emerald Bay Community Church or The Hospice of East Texas Foundation, 4111 University Blvd., Tyler, TX 75701.
