“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ I believe I saw Chandler several times at Randy & Susan's home in Canton, when he was there to play with Hunter. What an incredible and faithful young man he was to serve the Lord and influence so many young people.

My heart is saddened for all of you and I am praying for our Lord to comfort you, as only He is able to do at this time. May the precious memories you have of Chandler, help to heal your hearts.

“ Dear Brazell family:

I met Jimmy four weeks ago at the Summit conference in Colorado. I went with him when we got feathers in our hair, and I was completely blown away by his incredible zeal for the Lord. When he smiled at me, it was like he was giving me a beautiful gift—so full of life and joy and love for Jesus. When I was with him, I was inspired by his life to do more for Christ. He shone so brightly.

He gave his testimony at Summit. He said he just wanted to impact people for the Lord.

He did.

I only knew Jimmy for a short period of time, but I am so thankful that I had the opportunity to meet him. He was such a treasure, a gift, and a blessing. One day, if I can look back on my life and see I've had half the impact he did in his nineteen years, I'd be the happiest girl in the world.

“Hear my cry, O God; Attend to my prayer. From the end of the earth I will cry to You, when my heart is overwhelmed; Lead me to the rock that is higher than I. For You have been a shelter for me, a strong tower from the enemy. I will abide in Your tabernacle forever; I will trust in the shelter of Your wings.” ~ Psalm 61:1-4

I'll be praying for your family, that God blesses you as much as your son and brother Jimmy blessed everyone who knew him.

To God be all glory,

“ I was so lucky to have been Chandler's fourth grade teacher. He was such a sweet young man and I am so proud to read about all of his work for the Lord. I am so sad that his work here is finished. God had other plans but it is so hard to say good bye until we see him in Heaven one day. Know that you are in my prayers and thoughts.

“ Chuck & Rhonda, Words seem so hollow right now to express what's in our hearts. We are so sorry for your loss...we can't even imagine! We are so grateful for the incredible life that the Lord gave Chandler to live. You taught him to live life to the full & to live it in complete & total abandonment of his love for the Lord. Well done, Chuck & Rhonda! You are both amazing, beautiful parents & incredible stewards of the gift of your children. May the Lord's unfailing love sustain you, Chase, Rachel & Christian right now. May the peace of Jesus continue to dwell deep within each one of you. May the Lord's comfort overwhelm you as you grieve. "Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted." Matt. 5:4
What an amazing son you have been blessed with. The life he lived brought honor to the Lord, but also honored you! Our deepest sympathy! We love you! Please know you are being covered in prayer!

“ My prayers have been with your family since I heard about the accident on Monday the 1st. What a wonderful Christian example Jimmy's life was to the young people he came in contact with. Though he will be greatly missed, I know it is a comfort to you all to know he is with our Lord Jesus. My prayer is that the life he lived will continue to impact young lives for years to come. May God's Love and Peace be with each of you. Love & prayers, Liz Crawford
